Type Of Plane In Disaster At Bombay, India, Today

Plane Bearing Party Crashes Near Bombay

H. R. Knickerbocker and Other Top American Newsmen Are Reported Among Dead

SPECIAL TOUR WAS BEING MADE

By DONALD THOMAS (I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

BOMBAY, July 12.—All 44 persons on a Royal Dutch Airlines Constellation—reportedly including 13 top American news correspondents—were killed today when the four-engine plane crashed on a hillside near Bombay.

The plane was on the final leg of a special tour of the Netherlands and the Dutch East Indies, officially sponsored by the Netherlands government.

Notable Victims
The victims were reported to include H. R. Knickerbocker, Pulitzer Prize winner for distinguished foreign correspondence in 1931, who was representing radio station WOR on the Pacific junket.

Others listed as passengers were: William Newton Scripps-Howard, newspaper editor, Nat. Barrows, Chicago Daily Times; Bertram D. Hulén, New York Times; Charles Gratke, foreign editor, Christian Science Monitor; James Brannan, Houston, (Tex.) Post; John Wierck, Time magazine; Elsie Dick, Mutual Broadcasting System; S. Burton Heath, Newspaper Enterprise association.

H. R. Knickerbocker was known in New Castle and in New Wilmington. On two different occasions, some years ago, he spoke here of his experiences as a foreign correspondent, first at Westminster college and later in the Cathedral.

At that time he was an ace foreign correspondent for the International News Service and his dispatches appeared in the News regularly.

"Knick" was a modern Richard Harding Davis. He had been all over the world many times, had covered the hot spots in the international field for years and probably had as clear a picture of World War Two as any person in the world.

Thomas Falco, Business Week; George Moorad, Portland Oregonian radio commentator; Fred Colvig, Denver Post; Vincent Mahoney, San Francisco Chronicle.

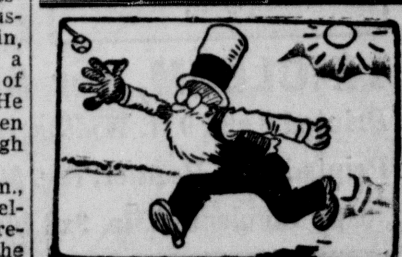

Lynn Mahan, public relations officer for the Dutch government in the United States, also was among the victims. He was an American citizen.

Truman Action In Steel Strike Threat Awaited

Negotiations Between U. S. Steel And C.I.O. Reported In "Complete Dead-lock"

STEELWORKERS WILL ACT ON STRIKE TODAY

BULLETIN
WASHINGTON, July 12.—(INS)—The White House today forecast speedy action by President Truman to block a threatened strike next week-end of one million steel workers.

Presidential Press Secretary Charles G. Ross told newsmen the steel dispute, focal point of labor's drive for fourth-round wage increases, "is under consideration." He added: "There may be a presidential statement later in the day."

By PHILLIPS J. PECK (I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, July 12.—A threatened nation-wide steel strike starting next week-end today brought labor's demands for a fourth-round wage increase before President Truman for action.

CIO Chief Philip Murray announced plans for the crippling walkout, which could halt the nation's entire productive machinery, after reporting a "complete dead-lock."

Weather conditions recently appear to have been just right for the growing corn. In some fields around the county now corn has reached stage of six feet or more in height.

Neshannock creek and other district creeks are quite low at the present time, despite the heavy rain received in the district over the last week-end.

Numerous miniature small racing automobiles have been transported through the city in the past few days. The cars are traveling in both directions, east and west.

Additional curbs at strategic intersections about the city were receiving bright yellow paint on Monday to warn motorists that the area is a no parking zone. Some motorists pay little regard to the warnings and park there anyway.

In the odd sights department Pa News discovered an unusual sign on a car on the new Route 422 west of the city on Monday. Instead of the usual "Just Married" sign which many cars carry, the sign reported "Just Divorced."

With the end of summer a long way off yet, Pa News observed one local store window depicting a fall scene with falling leaves and other ideas to instill the idea of colder weather ahead. At least it made those who witnessed the scene feel a bit cooler amid the heat of Monday.

Reminder of by-gone days was re-enacted on the East Side of the city on Monday afternoon. Numerous youngsters were having their pictures taken aboard a pony while parents stood by attempting to get the kiddies to smile a bit before the camera was snapped. The practice was a common one in the city a number of years ago.

Predict Only Small Part Of President's Program Will Pass

By CHARLES B. SEIB (I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, July 12.—Congressional leaders predicted today that President Truman can hope to see only a very small part of his 11-point economic program passed this session.

An International News Service survey showed that only the request for restoration of the reciprocal trade act and for a study of investment and development needs in industry appear certain of fulfillment before congress goes home late next month.

The chief executive will carry his case to the people in a nationwide broadcast starting at 10:30 p. m. EDT, Wednesday night. It also will be televised.

After the president laid down his economic program, the CIO made public an economic report by Robert R. Nathan Associates, Inc., contending that corporations generally are ready to grant a fourth round of wage increases.

Mr. Truman said prices should be cut without lowering wages.

On Doubtful List
The INS survey showed that on the "doubtful list" are the president's requests for an "improved program of farm income supports."

Youth Drowned In Little Beaver

Brady Paul Ferguson, Of R. D. 1, New Galilee, Is Drowning Victim

RESUSCITATION EFFORT FUTILE

Efforts of the Darlington and New Castle rescue squads to revive Brady Paul Ferguson, aged 16 years, of R. D. 1, New Galilee, who drowned in the Little Beaver creek, in Little Beaver township, Monday evening, proved futile, although the rescue workers worked over him for almost two hours.

The youth, with his sister, Mary, aged 21 years, went bathing in the Little Beaver, near their home, about 9 o'clock last evening. Neither could swim very well, it was stated, and after they had been in the water a short time, Miss Ferguson tried to let down, and found the water over her head. She began struggling and calling for help, but was able to make shore unassisted. When she turned to look for her brother, he had gone down, she told state police.

Body Recovered
The sister went to the home of John Wallace nearby to get help, but Mrs. Wallace was unable to swim, and had to summon her husband, who was fishing in the creek about a quarter of a mile away.

He recovered the body about 15 minutes later, and applied artificial respiration, while the Darlington firemen's rescue squad was hurrying to the scene.

A call was also sent here for help, and state police, with Director of Public Safety Richard I. Davis, Assistant Fire Chief Norman A. McFarland, and Fireman William Shulif, escorted by state police also went to the scene to try and revive the youth. They continued their efforts until 11:30 o'clock, when a doctor from New Galilee pronounced him dead.

The body was removed to the Lutton funeral home in Beaver Falls to be prepared for burial.

Royal Sisters Of Britain At Fancy Dress Ball Event

LONDON, July 12.—(INS)—Britain's royal sisters were disclosed today to have "switched personalities" at a fancy dress ball Monday night at the American embassy.

Princess Margaret Rose, who has a reputation for impishness and originality, appeared in an off-the-shoulder blue tulle dress.

Princess Elizabeth, on the other hand—who is more often thought of as sober and something of a conformist—appeared as a waitress. She was dutifully followed about by her husband, Prince Philip, who was dressed as a waiter, complete with napkin and white towel.

The ball was given in honor of Sherman Douglas, daughter of American Ambassador Lewis Douglas.

Blast Victim Spoke Here On Fourth, Last Year

Major General Vernon E. Pritchard, killed in an explosion aboard his cabin cruiser near Washington, D. C., Sunday, was the army officer who dedicated the Lawrence county war memorial.

On July 4, 1948, the Lawrence county commissioners dedicated the memorial shaft on the court house lawn. For the Navy Admiral "Jocko" Clark former commander of the "Yorktown" was invited to speak and for the Army Major-General Pritchard. Both accepted.

British Troops Are Ordered To Unload Ships

Labor Government Acts Under Emergency Declared By King George

GOVERNMENT IN GRAVE DISPUTE
By HOWARD BERRY (I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

LONDON, July 12.—Britain's labor government, acting under emergency regulations, ordered 2,300 troops today to unload food and other vital supplies from 127 ships idled in the strike-bound port of London.

The government's declaration, which threatened longshoremen with imprisonment if they violated the stringent state of emergency, plunged the Laborite administration into one of the gravest disputes with its main source of strength—the British workers.

Government spokesmen have charged that the two-week old unofficial walkout by the London dock workers is Communist-inspired. The walkout has paralyzed the great port and hurt the struggling British economy.

Many of the strikers stood on street corners or sat in cafes dis-

Report Ten Dead In Plane Crash In California

(BULLETIN)

CHATHAM, Cal., July 12.—(INS)—A Los Angeles police radio car arrived today on the scene of a passenger plane crash 40 miles northwest of Los Angeles and flashed the word to headquarters: "There are ten persons dead."

"There are 30 persons critically injured."

LOS ANGELES, July 21.—(INS)—Fighting was going on aboard a C-45 airplane when the ship carrying 42 passengers crashed and burned two miles south of Chatsworth, Calif., today.

The Los Angeles air route traffic control bureau said the ship's pilot and requested on his radio that "police meet the ship on landing" because there "was fighting aboard among the passengers."

The crash occurred in the Santa Susana mountains. Standard Air Lines, operating at Lockheed terminal in Burbank, said it had a C-46 due in from New York at the time of the crash.

The bureau said that following the crash one of its planes had circled the wreckage but had discovered no signs of life.

The bureau reported the pilot had radioed a flight plan for a landing at Lockheed air terminal. He failed to give his point of departure.

Railroad Shop Workers Return To Work Monday

About 145 Pennsylvania shop workers will return to work Monday, July 18, at the New Castle division shops in the Seventh ward, it is announced.

Workers have been idle since June 13 as a result of the mine shutdowns from strikes and vacations.

Increase in freight traffic due to iron ore from the lakes and other reasons has made it possible for the men to go back to work, it is stated.

Clear And Cooler Weather In Area

It was clear and continued cool again today, with a promise from the weatherman that temperatures would rise no higher than the mid 80s in Western Pennsylvania.

The temperature dipped to the low 60s during the night, and there was morning fog in some valley areas.

Sen. Dulles To Make Reply To Sen. Taft

WASHINGTON, July 12.—(INS)—Sen. Dulles (R) N.Y., takes the Senate floor today to answer arguments of Sen. Taft (R) Ohio, that the North Atlantic Security Pact would promote war rather than peace.

Dulles, the distinguished GOP foreign policy expert who has represented the U.S. at every session of the United Nations' General Assembly, will be making his maiden Senate speech.

The freshman senator said he will cover some of the same issues as did Taft "but from a different viewpoint."

Dulles has been foreign policy adviser to New York's Gov. Dewey, who beat Taft in last summer's race for the GOP presidential nomination.

Senators said privately that they awaited Dulles' speech with special interest in view of speculation that he might today be secretary of state had Dewey won last November's presidential election.

Body Of Girl Theatre Cashier Found At Flint

(BULLETIN)

FLINT, Mich., July 12.—(INS)—The beaten body of a 17-year-old Flint Mich., theatre cashier was found today in a wooded area near the Kearley agricultural school on the outskirts of Flint.

Police identified the victim as Beatrice Dickerson of Flint.

Sheriff Tom Walcott was summoned to the murder scene by a farmer who said he heard screams during the night but waited until morning to notify police.

Investigators said the young high school girl was last seen alive when she deposited the theatre receipts in a Flint bank last night. Beatrice was escorted to the bank by a police guard and then headed for home.

The scene of the murder was about 600 feet from the agricultural school.

Say Foreigners In Shanghai Held Virtual Prisoners

LONDON, July 12.—(INS)—The Shanghai correspondent for the London Daily Express reported today that Britons, Americans and other foreigners are virtual prisoners in the Chinese port city.

He said the Communist government has refused to say when they will be issued permits to leave the country. The writer quoted some observers as saying they will be held as "hostages until their governments recognize Communist China."

The correspondent added that the 1,500 Americans and 3,000 Britons are blamed for everything that goes wrong in the city.

Grant For Spain Carried In Bill

European Aid Bill Is Sent To Senate Floor For Action

TRIMMED BY 750 MILLION DOLLARS

By GLENN M. GREEN (I. N. S. Special Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, July 12.—Trimmed nearly 750 million dollars below the budget figure, the European aid bill headed for the Senate floor today bearing a fifty million dollar grant for Spain.

The economy-minded Senate appropriations committee approved five billion, 573 million, 380 thousand dollars for European aid during the rest of this year and 1950.

The administration has asked for six billion, 322 million, 200 thousand dollars.

In addition to the outright aid provisions, the Senate group authorized Administrator Paul Hoffman to make 150 million dollars in treasury loans.

As passed by the House, the bill carried five billion, 617 million, 470 thousand dollars.

City To Share New Road Costs

Special Council Meeting Agrees To Help In The Construction Of 422 In City

In a special meeting Tuesday morning, New Castle city council agreed to share in the expenses of the construction of route 422 within the city limits.

Mayor John F. Haven called the meeting as a result of a hurry-up call from state highway district engineer, S. W. Jackson, in Franklin who advised that the state would like to have a letter to that effect today.

Routine minutes of the previous meeting were dispensed with as the mayor told council that indications point to the fact that the new route from the Butler county line to New Castle may be constructed sooner than earlier reported.

Councilman Joe Alexander made the two necessary motions and it was passed by council unanimously. The motions directed that the mayor, as chairman of council sign a letter from the city agreeing to share in the construction costs and that an ordinance to that effect be drawn up by the legal department.

Brief Services At Texas Capitol For Gov. Jester

Lieut. Gov. Allan Shivers Prepares
To Take Oath Of Office
As Governor

AUSTIN, Tex., July 12.—(INS)—Brief services will be held today in the Texas state capitol for Gov. Beauford H. Jester and then the body of the 56-year-old statesman will be returned to his Corsicana, Tex., home for additional services and burial.

The Lone Star state's chief executive died while en route to Houston for a routine physical examination. Medical authorities said death was due to a heart attack. Jester was found dead in his sleeping compartment aboard a Southern Pacific railroad train in Houston.

His body was returned to Austin in a National Guard plane.

An inquest determined that the noted soldier, lawyer, educator and public official died about midnight Sunday while his train rolled across the nation's largest state.

The governor was serving his second term as Texas chief executive.

While the state prepared to pay final homage to the late governor, plans were made to swear in his successor, Lt. Gov. Allan Shivers of Woodville, Tex.

Shivers, notified of Jester's death, said he had no immediate plans for taking the oath of office.

lock" in negotiations with the steel industry for a new wage contract covering one million steelworkers.

Fact-Finding Board?
Mr. Truman is expected to appoint an emergency fact-finding board to investigate the dispute.

Under the Taft-Hartley law, the President can ask the union to continue work until the board reports and then delay a strike for another 80 days under a court injunction. Ultimately, however, the government—in the person of Mr. Truman—probably will have to decide the basic issue of whether millions of union members get 1949 pay boosts and how much.

Murray's steelworkers are out in front in this year's labor management battle and the verdict in their case may become the pattern for American industry generally.

Washington Economist Robert R. Nathan delivered an economic analysis to the CIO which declared that "there is not any question but that corporations as a whole can afford substantial wage increases."

To Act Today
PITTSBURGH, July 12.—(INS)—The CIO-United Steelworkers will act in Pittsburgh today on the recommendation of their president, Philip Murray that half-a-million men in the industry go on strike at the end of this week.

The 170-man executive board and wage-policy committee of the union will meet in an emergency session to plan their strategy in the deadlocked negotiations for higher wages and improved social insurance and pensions.

Murray, the United States Steel Corporation and smaller segments of the industry said in Washington yesterday they were in "complete deadlock" on negotiations. They met with Federal Mediation Director Cyrus S. Ching, who relayed the information to President Truman.

The half-a-million steelworkers are employed in 189 basic steel plants. Their wage contracts expire either at midnight Friday or Saturday.

The telephone was invented by Alexander Graham Bell in 1876.

Arizona Star. It later was announced, however, that they did not make the ill-starred flight to Bombay.

Ten Of Crew Killed

Ten members of the crew, all Du. 8 nationals, lost their lives. Other persons aboard the big plane were believed to be Dutch and English news writers and commentators.

Ironically, the correspondents' plane with its galaxy of byliners, was the first KLM plane to be allowed to land in India in weeks.

The New Delhi government placed a ban on all such landings in retaliation for the Dutch government's "police action" in Indonesia.

Because of the presence of distinguished American reporters on board, the New Delhi authorities gave the plane a special clearance to land for refueling.

At a point in the Ghatkopar hills only three miles from Bombay's Santa Cruz field, the plane suddenly lost altitude in a driving rainstorm.

The tip of the left wing brushed a hillside. The craft lurched violently, split in two and plunged to the ground, tearing and burning 200 tall trees which formed a rough circle around the wreckage.

Most Immediately Killed
Most of the victims were killed immediately and their bodies burned beyond recognition.

A stretcher bearer who returned from the disaster scene said, however, that one woman was still alive and moaning when the first rescue teams arrived but that she died soon afterward.

An Indian hydraulic engineer at work in the rough, inaccessible hill area who witnessed the crash said that the bodies of the victims were strewn over the rocky hillside.

The plane had circled the Santa Cruz airport several times. The pilot was unable to make his landing because of the squally weather and poor visibility. This is the season of the treacherous Indian monsoons, when gusty storms break with startling suddenness.

Villagers working in nearby rice fields heard the big ship flying low overhead. It came darting out of a low cloud in the heavy rain and rocketed toward the hills, where it exploded with a deafening crash.

T. P. Bhalla, Indian director-general of civil aviation, said that a departmental inquiry will be held into the cause of the accident.

He expressed the government's deep regret over the tragedy.

Aboard Leaving Batavia
Washington, July 12.—(INS)—The State department issued the following statement this morning in connection with the Dutch KLM plane crash near Bombay:

"The American embassy at The Hague at 11:15 a.m. EDT confirmed by telephone that all members of the American group of journalists were aboard the KLM plane when it left Batavia except William Mathews and Dorothy Brandon."

"This cancels out the earlier information and definitely places Mr. Hulen, Newton and Knickerbocker as on the plane when it left Batavia."

The plane had stopped at New Delhi and it has not yet been definitely established that all of the passengers were aboard when the plane left that city.

cussing the government's action which followed the strikers' determination not to work on two Canadian ships involved in a Canadian seamen's union jurisdictional dispute.

In Effect Today

The emergency measures, giving the government vast powers, including the right to move troops into the strike areas, came into effect at midnight, Tuesday.

A special committee of three to five persons—to be named today—will administer the drastic measures, which are the most severe in peacetime since the general strike of 1926.

The proclamation of the emergency was signed by King George VI and was issued after the 10,000 dockers defied the threat of such a decree and voted to remain idle. Troops were immediately moved on to the wharves to start unloading 120 ships.

Some 2,300 soldiers, sailors and marines are now working the vessels, and the commission may decide today whether to send additional servicemen to the docks.

The 10,000 idle longshoremen are only part of London's total waterfront complement. Another 15,000, Labor Minister George Isaacs reported, have remained at work.

Chinese Leaders Plan Offensive On Communists

By HOWARD HANDLEMAN
Far Eastern Director, I. N. S.
TAIPEH, Formosa, July 12.—At least 20 high-ranking Chinese Nationalist officials left Formosa for Canton today, reportedly to meet with Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek and Kuomintang leaders on the planned "general offensive" against the Communists.

Chiang himself left Manila today on his four-engine transport plane, for an undisclosed destination. It is believed the Chinese Nationalist leader is headed for China's mainland.

The detachment which departed from Taipei included Chiang's eldest son, Chiang Chin-Shi. The Canton government is expected to be represented by Acting President Li Tsung-Jen and other top officials who took over when the generalissimo went into "retirement."

Man Wounded; Shot By Mistake; Thought Prowler

LOCK HAVEN, Pa., July 12.—(INS)—William Tate, 20, of Bellefonte, R. D. 1, was in critical condition in Lock Haven hospital today when he was shot in mistake for a prowler.

Tate, a veteran, was visiting his sister, Mrs. William Haffley, of Bellefonte, last night when they heard noises and searched for a prowler.

He and his sister were on one section of the roof with a flashlight. Mrs. Fowler, a neighbor, heard noises, ran onto the roof and blasted away as he came up the stairs, police said.

Lock Haven officials are investigating.

Korean Navy Base Has Strange Past

CHINHAI, Korea.—(INS)—The legacy of the Korean Naval Base at Chinhai, located on the southeast corner of the Korean peninsula, runs a peculiarly wide gamut.

The Headquarters building was built by the Russians during their occupation of Chinhai from 1904-1905; most of the fortifications and installations were built by the Japanese during their occupations from 1905-1945; while the ships and most of the equipment came from America.

Today this former Japanese hideout and refueling harbor is the seat of the Korean Naval Base. At least 3,000 sailors and would-be sailors and officers trudge over and police former Japanese installations.

Governor Duff will view the Governor's Day parade and Vice President Barkley, the labor and industry parade, says the State Department of Commerce Vacation and Recreation Bureau.

LONG WAIT FOR OLD SHERRY WINE

CLEVELAND.—(INS)—If you like old Sherry wine, you will have to wait some 20 years or so before a sufficient supply of 50-to-100-year-old Sherry is available.

This is prediction of John S. Harvey of Bristol, England, chairman of the board of the John S. Harvey & Sons, Ltd. Harvey pointed out, however, that plenty of good Sherry and Port is on hand to satisfy most gourmets.

Harvey, in Cleveland during his regular two-year visit to the U.S., said vineyards in Spain and Portugal again are producing large crops of grapes which are shipped to Bristol to be made into wine and aged in the city's famed wine cellars.

Part Of Fight To Conquer Disease

LONDON.—(INS)—Handkerchiefs, treated with a safe, odorless disinfectant which would survive several laundries and retain their activity during long storage may find a place in the control of respiratory disease.

Experiments with the new disinfectants are described in the latest edition of the medical journal Lancet.

These experiments were carried out by volunteers at the Common Cold Air and Hygiene units at Harvard hospital, Salisbury, Wiltshire, by Dr. K. R. Dumball and J. E. Lovelock.

"The most efficient disinfectant tested was hexyl resorcinol," said their report.

"The potential importance of the handkerchief in the spread of infection and the promise shown by the methods of disinfectant treatment suggest that a trial of these methods in the prevention of some suitable infection is worth while."

ROBBERS FREED, VICTIM JAILED

MANILA.—(INS)—A Philippine court recently freed a suspected Filipino thief and sentenced to jail his intended robbery victim.

Victoriano Reyes, a native of Manila, began his ninety-day jail term in early April after he was convicted of perjury in an effort to protect a Filipino thief from conviction of robbery.

The thief was apprehended by police while he attempted to rob Reyes' home in November, 1948.

Reyes was convicted after he refused to identify the thief in court and gave revised testimony which resulted in the acquittal of the suspect.

Locust Brood Six In Berks, Lebanon Debut

HARRISBURG.—What is known as Brood Six of the 17-year locust has been reported for the first time in two Pennsylvania counties, according to the bureau of plant industry, State Department of Agriculture.

There are approximately 30 known broods of periodical cicadas or 17-year locusts. Records maintained over the years show that members of Brood Six should have appeared during May and June in Bucks and Montgomery counties, and possibly Northampton, Dauphin and Lancaster counties.

Specimens have been identified from Dauphin and Bucks counties, according to Dr. A. B. Champlain, department entomologist. Specimens also have been sent in from Lebanon and Berks counties, first appearances of Brood Six in those two counties.

Although the insects have now disappeared, Dr. Champlain requests that records of the appearance of any locusts found anywhere in Pennsylvania be sent to him at Harrisburg for identification and check on spread of the insect within the state.

The locusts of Brood Six did not appear in any great numbers and did not become a pest in the areas where scheduled to appear.

First Sugar Mill 450 Years Old

NEW YORK.—(INS)—The 450th anniversary of the establishment of the first sugar mill in the Western Hemisphere will be observed in August at Yaguata, in the Dominican Republic.

The mill was set up in 1509—just 16 years after Christopher Columbus planted the first cane during his second voyage in 1493.

Fourteen sugar centrals that comprise the Dominican Sugar Producers' Association, will sponsor the event, it was announced by the Dominican Information Center.

The first sugar cane was brought to the island of Hispaniola (now known as the Dominican Republic and Haiti) on November 27, 1493.

The art of growing sugar, the Center states, had been brought to Spain and Portugal by the Arabs in the Mohammedan invasion and the cane Columbus chose to bring to the new world came from the Canary Islands. It has been growing in the Dominican Republic ever since. The first grinding mill site exists in Yaguata, about 45 miles east of Ciudad Trujillo.

Production today amounts to half a million short tons and it constitutes the backbone of the Dominican economy.

PUSAN.—(INS)—A group of lonely Hawaiian Islanders push the buttons and switches which give South Korea two-thirds of its electric power.

They are part of the crew of the Jacona, a 7,000 gross ton electric barge moored in Pusan Harbor. Built in Tacoma, Wash., in 1918, she was converted to a power ship in 1930. The Jacona was originally chartered by the Army for Guam, but was diverted to Korea in 1948.

Since the Russians cut off the power supply from North Korea, the Jacona has been South Korea's main source of electricity.

Recreation facilities are meagre and barren for the 21 Hawaiian crewmen, most of whom have been with the Jacona for over a year.

Thomas Low, 23-year-old graduate of Kamehameha School of Honolulu, said "Recreation—kinda slim. We have a seamen's club—many many drinking, but kaumoos (girls)?—Have a no."

Cold, clear fresh water should be provided for livestock at all times. Evening and morning watering is not enough to keep the animals healthy.

Governor Duff Gives Rules For State's Boys' Camp

INDIANTOWN GAP, Pa., July 12.—(INS)—Americanism and fellowship were Gov. James H. Duff's rules for supervising the 2,500 "teen aged boys who will report Thursday to Indiantown Gap for a two-weeks outing on a section of the state's vast military reservation."

The governor conferred with 160 Camp Penn counselors who will be on hand for the state-sponsored encampment and said the success of the movement may herald its extension to other states in the union.

"You men have an opportunity to participate in an experiment to fight against the hate that is loose in the world today," he told camp officials. "If we can be instrumental in Pennsylvania in helping underprivileged children we may start a national movement."

"Never before in the history of the world have people been so disheartened. We've had cold wars between labor and capital, Russia and the United States. These must end."

"Therefore, the spirit of this camp should be one of good will, of helpfulness and lacking in any class distinction—except the very great distinction of being an American."

"We are giving these boys the opportunity of a camping trip in the country that could have been received in no other way."

"We are hopeful that this movement will spread an offensive of good will all over the United States," Governor Duff asserted. "One-third of the $600,000 appropriated by the legislature for the camp at Duff's suggestion will be spent this summer; the balance will underwrite next year's camp for 5,000 campers."

The boys selected on a population-percentage basis for this year's camp are between 14 and 16 years of age. They will be given complete outfits of clothing which they will be allowed to take home at the conclusion of the camp which will be under the administration of State Superintendent of Public Instruction Francis B. Haas and State Adj. Gen. F. A. Weber.

Senator Malone Denounces North Atlantic Pact

WASHINGTON, July 12.—(INS)—Sen. Malone (R) Nev., today denounced the North Atlantic pact as "a vital link in a chain of events bound to wreck the economic structure of this nation."

Malone declared in a Senate speech that the pact is part of a five-point administration-sponsored program aimed at bringing about United States membership in a 58-Nation "commonwealth of the world."

He said that in addition to wrecking the U. S. economy and wage-living standards, Senate ratification of the pact would "guarantee the integrity of the colonial system operated by England, France, and Holland in Asia, Africa and Europe."

The Nevada senator spoke as Sen. Dulles (R) N. Y., stood by to make his maiden speech in support of the pact.

Malone told his colleagues that the twelve-nation Atlantic alliance would nullify the "173-year-old right" of Congress alone to declare war.

Around Hollywood

By FRANK NEILL
(International News Service Staff Correspondent)

HOLLYWOOD, July 12.—(INS)—Fred Cavens, a famous French fencing master, tendered advice today to girls who would like to wear sweaters with the aplomb of Jane Russell or Betty Grable but who can't.

Mons. Cavens admonished: "Femmes who wear falsies should fence with the foils." The literate alliteration simply means that chest muscles can be grown by constant practice in the fine art of fencing.

"No woman in the world," said Cavens, "needs to be flat-chested. All she has to do is work faithfully with the foils and observe the simple rule of throwing the chest out and holding the timmy in."

Good For Figure
The foil expert currently is teaching a scimitar routine to Paul Christian and John Sutton for "Bagdad," a slambang thriller being manufactured at Universal-International.

"Furthermore," Gavens said, "fencing is a wonderful way to keep the rest of the figure trim."

I can guarantee that when milady frolics with the foils she doesn't have to forego any food."

Fencing, according to Cavens, is not only an easy substitute for diet to keep the weight down but it keeps the fencer young in both body and mind.

No Pushover
"It's the chess of sports," he said. "You become agile-minded as well as quick in body when you fence. You're never a pushover."

Cavens explained the last remark literally: "People who fence learn to stand on the balls of their feet, never resting back on their heels. Consequently they cannot be pushed over by the first person who taps them on the chest because their weight is always forward."

The exclusive teacher of Errol Flynn and Basil Rathbone, Cavens also fences regularly with Cornell Wilde who, at one time, was groomed for the foils at the Olympic games.

Reject Move To Reopen Chambers-Hiss House Probe

WASHINGTON, July 12.—(INS)—The House Un-American Committee today rejected a Republican move to reopen hearings on the Alger Hiss-Whittaker Chambers case.

Chairman Wood (D) Ga., also announced flatly that his committee will not conduct any investigation of the conduct of Judge Samuel H. Kaufmann in the recent Hiss perjury trial in New York.

The committee in a closed session turned thumbs down on a motion by Rep. Nixon (R) Cal., that the House spy probers summon Gerhardt Eisler's ex-wife who was not allowed to testify at the New York trial and other individuals involved who have never been heard by the House group.

Would declared such an action "might hinder" the conduct of the second trial and Hiss, former State department official accused by Chambers of passing secret documents to him.

Recover Stolen Porch Furniture

Report was made to city police by Mrs. C. Mazzeo, of 915 DuShane street, on Monday, that several glider cushions had been stolen from her front porch. She also stated that other neighbors had missed various articles of porch furniture.

Later, a man mowing the lawn at the Ben Franklin Junior high school, discovered the shrubbery broken down near the school building, and investigating, found the missing cushions and other articles, piled up behind the shrubbery. Mrs. Mazzeo was notified and claimed the articles stolen from her porch. The rest are being kept at the school building, awaiting the claim of the owners.

Police believe that boys in the neighborhood were responsible for the thefts.

Tells What Atomic Bomb Blast Would Do To City

WASHINGTON, July 12.—(INS)—The Atomic Energy Commission's director of biology and medicine told Congress Monday what would happen if an atomic bomb, even an "old fashioned one" burst above a city.

Dr. Shields Warren, speaking in terms of Hiroshima, Nagasaki and Bikini type bombs gave the Congressional Atomic Committee these predictions:

Effect Predicted

Effect within a half mile radius of the burst:

1. All structure except reinforced concrete and steel would be demolished.

2. "Nearly everyone not protected by earth, steel, or thick concrete would die," either from falling buildings, flying wreckage from flash burns from the burst, or slowly from radioactivity.

3. "Some radioactive victims would die 'within a few hours.' Others would live 'four or five days.' Some, their white blood cells damaged, would die of infections in four days to six weeks. Others would die of hemorrhages in two to six weeks.

4. In Japan, expectant mothers in the half mile radius died. Men who got a near-fatal exposure showed evidence of sterility for three weeks. Survivors' hair fell out, but later regrew.

In Mile Radius

Within the radius of one half to one mile:

1. Most residential buildings would be destroyed. Only buildings resistant to fire and shock would be immune.

2. Casualties from burns, blast effects, and flying debris would be prominent. Radiation injuries "would be serious."

Radius of one to one and one half miles:

1. Blast and fire damage would be "extensive."

2. Flash burns could be expected, and radiation injuries "could be very prominent" up to one and one fourth miles from the center of the area.

Two to Two and Half Miles

Radius of two to two and one half miles:

1. Blast and fire damage would be "appreciably lessened."

2. There would be few injuries from either flash burns, blasts or radiation.

In an underwater burst:

1. Major danger would be in the cloud column carrying radioactive particles coming down as rain or mist.

"The lethal area might extend one half mile upwind or two or more miles downwind."

It was the first time AEC had summarized bomb effect publicly. Dr. Warren said much of the information had "appeared piece meal" but said that few if any of the reports ever had wide circulation even to the professional public.

His statement applied only to the earlier bombs, with no mention of effect of newer and more powerful weapons.

In the lists as well is Gerhardt Eisler, recently remembered for his sensational flight from American custody aboard the Polish liner Batory and now a leading figure in the Communist overlordship of eastern Germany. Court House

Registration Shows Net Loss

Total Registration As Of Monday Is 406 Less Than Total For November 1948 Election

OTHER EVENTS IN COURT HOUSE

Despite drives and special registration days, warnings and urgings, the total number of registered voters in Lawrence county is 406 less than it was for the November 1948 election.

For the November election there were 41,137 registered. When the books were opened in December following the election, this number went to 41,255.

In March the annual cancellations were made of voters who had not voted in the two years last past and 2722 voters were cancelled out. Some had died, others had moved from the district, but most of them represented voters who thought so little of their franchise they did not vote.

This brought the net down to 38,533. A number of the voters who were cancelled reinstated themselves. But as of Monday, July 11, 1949, there were just 40,731 voters registered. Back in the early forties the total stood over 46,000. Hundreds of young men and women have come to voting age since then, but apparently have not registered.

The last day for registering is Saturday, July 23. On July 20-21-22 the office of permanent registration will be kept open until 9 p. m. On Saturday, July 23, the last day, the office will be open until 6 p. m.

Free Methodists To Open Camp On Thursday Evening

Expect Several Hundred To Be In Attendance At Camp Services In Croton Section

Camp meeting time has arrived again. For the third consecutive year, members of the New Castle district of the Free Methodist church will assemble on the newly acquired camp grounds in the Croton and Vine street section of the city for their 10-day camp service.
Camp meeting is scheduled to open this year on Thursday evening, July 14, and come to a close on Sunday, July 24. It has been announced by Rev. Paul Splitstone, district superintendent of this area for the Free Methodist church. Services are scheduled daily for 10:30 a. m., 2:30 p. m. and 7:30 p. m. Rising bell is at 6 a. m.

Speakers this year include outstanding leaders in the denomination, with services planned for all age groups. Main evangelists are Rev. C. E. Zike of Akron, O., and Rev. J. C. Hollister of Illinois, who will alternate nightly in the evangelistic services. Miss Gladys Brown will be in charge of the Daily Vacation Bible school work. The youth program will be under the supervision of Rev. and Mrs. Howard Rose.

Many To Attend
The camp meetings will attract Free Methodists from New Castle, Sharon, Oil City, Ellwood City and many other Western Pennsylvania cities. Numerous cottages have been erected on the camp grounds for those staying during the camp season. Many tents will be erected to care for others who will camp there during the period.

A large tabernacle-type tent will arrive in the city this week and will be erected about Wednesday in order to have it ready for the first service on Thursday evening. The large cafeteria will accommodate those who remain on the camp during the season or those staying for one day. Good home cooked food is featured.

The camp grounds are situated on what was the former Vine street golf grounds and country club. Those driving to the grounds may use the Scott street entrance or the Vine street entrance to the camp site. Large parking accommodations are available.

Good Taste By FRANCES MARTEL

DANCE ETIQUETTE
"What should I do at a dance when this situation occurs: The music stops and during intermission my partner and I stand in the middle of the floor talking. Then when the music resumes, I have to go off and leave her because I have another partner for the next dance. It is a dilemma when the discarded partner has not the next dance taken."

Answer: If a man and a woman are standing talking when the music suddenly starts, the man should, out of courtesy to her, ask the woman to dance. He should not go off and leave her standing alone. If he already has a partner for that dance, as you did, he must either find a partner for the woman with whom he had been talking or take her to a seat among her friends. By no means should he excuse himself and leave her standing unattended, in the middle of the floor. No woman should leave herself in such a position. After she has finished dancing, she should have her partner take her to a "safe" place so that she will not have to endure the embarrassment of being stranded in the middle of nowhere.

Question: I am to have a church wedding and shall wear traveling clothes. What shall I do with my purse and gloves during the ceremony? Shall I hold them in my right hand?

Answer: If you intend to return home before leaving on your trip, you need carry no purse to the church. You may carry a prayer book and wear gloves and at that part of the ceremony wherein the ring will be placed on your finger slip off your left glove, or have the ring finger slit.

Present your personal problems to Miss Martel who will promptly send personal replies to questions from readers inclosing stamped, addressed envelopes.

Today's Fashion Flash

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE (I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

NEW YORK, July 12.—Husky artificial posies for wear on heavy fall fabrics will become the trimming craze of next season.

Designers offer velvet violets, corduroy chrysanthemums and tailored tulips—to be pinned on belts, gloves, hats and lapels. Flowers, usually a token of spring, are expected to complement, yet counteract, the trend toward ultra-casual clothes. A woman in a tweed suit will lose her femininity, say trim experts, unless she adds a softening suede or woolen posy.

The flowers may match or contrast with the ensemble, and come in wool, velvet, taffeta, fur and satin.

For specially dressy occasions, the velvet pussy willows will have sequined stems!

ASKS EXTRADITION
HARRISBURG, July 12.—(INS)—Gov. James H. Duff on Monday asked Lynchburg, Va., authorities to extradite Ollie Carey, Norris-town Negro, to Montgomery county to answer charges of slaying an Abington township policeman June 29.

The victim, Thomas J. Matthews, was shot while checking a stolen automobile.

Oribasius was a Greek medical author and physician to the Emperor Julian the Apostate. He was born in 326 A. D.; died in 403.

HELD IN SHOOTING
MADISON, Wis., July 12.—(INS)—George "Butch" King, 44, a carpenter, was seized by police Monday shortly after he was named as the man who shot and killed the wife of a paralyzed World War I vet.

The shooting was reportedly the outgrowth of a love triangle.

Police said the paralyzed vet,

Julius Jackson, definitely identified King as the man who fired two revolver shots at Jackson's wife, Sadie, 40, a waitress. King denied the charge.

Jackson told police that he sat by helpless and unable to move during the shooting.

The man's name, Sebastian, means venerable.

Gottfried von Strassburg was one of Germany's 13th century court poets. His poem, "Tristan and Isolde," based upon a Celtic legend, was the subject upon which Richard Wagner wrote his opera of that title. The poem was written about 1215.

Try And Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

Robert Considine, columnist and co-author of "Thirty Seconds over Tokyo," was cruising in a friend's brand-new convertible one morning about ten when he discovered that the car was equipped with a telephone.

He couldn't resist calling his wife, Mildred. That good lady was awakened from a sound sleep to hear an operator drone, "There is a mobile call for you." "I don't know anybody in Mobile," said Mrs. C. firmly, and hung up.

The operator rang her again, however, and she heard her husband say, "What hath God wrought?" "Come home," answered Mrs. Considine. "You're drunk."

Louis Kronenberger once visited the home of a brand-new millionaire. The furnishings were ornate; the only thing missing was pictures on the walls. "I suppose," hazarded Kronenberger, "you're going to acquire some old masters?" "I should say not," replied the hostess. "If we've got to spend all that money for pictures, we're going to get ourselves painted."

Courtship Called Personal Matter

ITHACA.—(INS)—Courtship is a personal responsibility that the younger generation must realize and accept. Dr. Evelyn Millis Duvall, executive secretary of the National Council on Family Relations, said in speaking at Cornell University on "Courtship of the Campus."

Certain basic questions must be considered in any discussion of courtship, Mrs. Duvall declared. "No one is born popular," she said, "and in general the amount of social experience in pre-college days is reflected in college courtship."

In considering the problem of "going steady," Mrs. Duvall noted that it is in many cases a matter of social security. In other cases it is because of financial convenience. All these must be added to the idea that two persons simply prefer to be with one another and no one else.

Mrs. Duvall stated that going steady often leads to the severing of valuable contacts with others, narrows one's personality, and in many cases causes premature involvement of the two parties.

Urge Union Of Free Nations Of Pacific Area

Chiang Kai-Shek And President Of Philippines Call For "Mutual Aid" Union

By FRANK EMERY
BAGUIO, Philippines, July 12.—(INS) — China's Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek and President Elpidio Quirino of the Philippines called on the free nations of the Pacific to organize a union of "mutual assistance" against Communism.

The Chinese Nationalist and Philippine state chiefs made their appeal in a joint communique issued in Baguio at the close of two days of conferences between the two presidents.

Chiang and Quirino declared that Far Eastern nations wishing to form an alliance designed to reverse the Communist tide should be convened at the earliest possible moment to devise concrete measures for its organization.

After drawing the blueprint for the projected Pacific counterpart to the North Atlantic Pact and designing its economic foundation, the presidents of China and the Philippines joined in proclaiming:

"It is our hope that other countries of Asia and the Pacific eventually will respond to the highest aims of the proposed union."

"We also had a discussion of imperatively coordinated full development for the Far Eastern countries in order to insure their stability and security."

Should Organize
"In view of the lack of close collaboration among them in the past and considering the gravity of the Communist menace which confronts their freedom and independence today, we deem it necessary that these countries should at once organize themselves into a union for the purpose of achieving solidarity and mutual assistance to contain and counteract that common threat."

Chiang and Quirino announced further they had agreed that "concrete, practical measures be taken by our respective governments for the promotion of closer economic and cultural cooperation" between Nationalist China and the Philippine republic.

In a separate supplementary statement, Generalissimo Chiang, who went into semi-retirement last January but now has promised to return to the leadership of his government's struggle against the Communists, declared:

"Although I have come to the Philippines upon the invitations of President Quirino to confer with him on my private capacity, I shall, as the leader of the Kuomintang (Nationalist party), undertake to advise and request the Chinese government to give its full support toward the taking of steps to implement (our) agreement."

(Reuters reported from Hong Kong that the establishment of the anti-Communist Pacific alliance will be undertaken initially by the Philippines, China and South Korea.)

THE FAMILY SCRAPBOOK

By DR. ERNEST G. OSBORNE

Getting Acquainted With One's Parents

There seems to be an almost universal interest on the part of children in their parents' backgrounds. What fun it is for them to look over snapshots taken long before they were born! And if there are love letters in the attic or old report cards, they, too, are poured over avidly.

Our children were much impressed with a bookshelf I had hewed out of a fallen tree at the spot in the mountains where we spent our honeymoon. Even such little things seem to mean much to youngsters.

Many an adult has told me that as they grow older, they realized how much they had missed knowing something of their parents' childhood. It's an important part of a child's life, this participation in his parents' background.

Part of the stuff of the stories we tell younger children can well come from our own family experiences and the things that happened to us as we were growing up. Older youngsters, too, will appreciate hearing some thing of the things we went through.

Naturally, one will not overdo this background business. It could become boring. But there is a real place for it in the family.

Girl Scout Day Camp Opened At Cascade Park

Instructors Named To Take Charge Of Summer Activities At Day Camp

Activities got off to "a flying start" at the Girl Scout day camp which opened Monday at Cascade park.

Instructors for this year's camping period have been named, who will capably see that the girls have a healthy, happy and safe time at the park. The young scouts have already decided upon nicknames for the leaders.

Miss Mildred "Lindy" Lusk is once again the camps efficient director. Business manager for the organization is Mrs. Ethel Rentz Ferver. Camp nurse is Mrs. Paul "Nursery" Walter.

Mrs. Helen "Queeny" McQueen is in charge of the swimming activities and is assisted by Miss Elaine "Skipper" English. Crafts are under the direction of Miss Alice "Al" Felther.

Two Groups Named
Two groups have been set up, namely the brownies and intermediates. The younger brownies are supervised by Mrs. Herbert "Tish" Ridgley, assisted by Miss Santa "Sandy" Solomon. Mrs. Clarke "Honey" Shumate is the leader of the older brownies. Misses Carolee "Pixie" McDermitt and Eleanor "Hogy" Hogan are capable assistants of this group.

Heading the younger intermediates is Mrs. David "Babe" Evans, aided by the Misses Wilda "Skip" Probst and Peggy "Mike" Florida. In charge of the older intermediates is Mrs. Walter "Pan" Jessel, with Miss Bonnie "Tommy" Nelson aiding. Programs are planned by Mildred "Pinky" Bradley.

All park facilities are in readiness for the outdoor-loving campers, and from all indications this year's day camp will be one of the most successful thus far.

Gen. John Charles Fremont, called "The Pathfinder," led five successive expeditions across the American continent when the Rocky mountains and western territory were unknown country.

St. Louis, Mo., was, in the early 1880s, the outfitting and starting point for armies of pioneers who followed the Oregon, Utah, California and Santa Fe trails.

With living quarters scarce and building costs high, it's small wonder that a fire causes consternation. Better make sure that your insurance covers not only fire, but also windstorm, explosion and other hazards.

THE BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY OF PENNSYLVANIA

Postpone Bell Phone Rate Boost For Three Months

HARRISBURG, July 12.—(INS) —The Pennsylvania Bell Telephone Company's proposed $25,000,000 a year rate boost today was sidetracked by an additional three month suspension ordered by the Public Utility Commission.

The rate-fixing agency voted unanimously to suspend the proposed tariff for 90 days when it became apparent that proceedings in the rate case unavoidably would be extended beyond the initial six-months suspension expiring July 21.

Hearings in the lengthy proceedings are scheduled to be concluded today before examiner Jay Eiseman. The commission offered its witnesses in the case yesterday for the first time.

Democrats Are Making Survey

Hunting Able Leader For Gubernatorial Nomination In State

OTHER NEWS OF STATE AFFAIRS

HARRISBURG, June 12.—(INS)—Democrat leaders are quietly surveying the field of able party followers for gubernatorial nomination but so far have not centered on any man. . . . A Democrat prominent in the House during the Earle administration believes leaders are looking for what he called a "Messiah" to carry the banner against the Republican choice in 1950. . . . He expressed the conviction that it will be a bitter campaign and said Democrats would have an easier time of unseating Republican control if the state's gubernatorial election would be held in conjunction with presidential balloting. . . . He indicated spirit is high among victory-scenting Democrats and expressed the belief that campaign funds will not be too hard to dig up in the party. . . . One of the difficulties usually confronting Democrats is the lack of cash to adequately underwrite a state campaign.

One does not need to see the beauty and advantages of Pennsylvania to tell a nationwide radio audience about them, take it from Robert C. McCormick who is Governor Duff's personally selected "super press agent" in the State Commerce Department. . . . McCormick received a letter from a Californian who had been sent a bundle of literature about Pennsylvania and then proceeded to soak up the facts. . . . Latter, the Californian who has never seen Pennsylvania went on a national hookup, told the master of ceremonies he was "Jack Frost of Snow Falls, Pa." and proceeded to extol Pennsylvania. . . . The Californian revealed his prank in a letter to McCormick who later checked the broadcast on a platter made by the broadcasting company.

The 2,500 boys between the ages of 14 and 16 who will open a two weeks encampment Thursday on the Indiantown Gap Military Reservation will be fed by a private caterer from Philadelphia who services the Bell Telephone Company. . . . Should the caterer not fulfill his contract at any time, the officials of Camp Penn are ready to summon mess service from the Pennsylvania National Guard which is encamped in other areas on the vast reservation. . . . The camp supervisors have made arrangements to have a C-47 PNG airplane available at all hours should it be necessary to take a camper elsewhere in the state in an emergency. . . . Next year, two separate camps are anticipated—one for boys and another for girls. . . . Tentative plans call for them to enjoy outings at Indiantown during different periods.

Governor Duff's interest in a weekly national magazine's article on the multi-million dollar Schuylkill river cleanup project prompted him to ask a Harrisburg newsdealer if the story had sparked higher sales. . . . Told that sales were normal, Duff directed: "Bring all your unsold copies to my office."

The resignation of Val J. Oldshue, former Pittsburgh newspaperman, as public relations director for the Public Utility Commission has taken one of the more competent publicity men from the State Capitol. . . . Many a newsman in Harrisburg, as well as those who have been transferred to Washington, owe much to Oldshue who painstakingly guided them through the intricacies of covering a technical public session of the commission. . . . Oldshue served with the French Ambulance Service in World War I from 1915 until America entered the war in 1917 when he joined the A.E.F. . . . Later he published a newspaper in Paris; France, and then served in the Balkans with the American Red Cross.

South Hills Residents Protest Low Pressure In Mains, Want Better Fire Protection

OTHER EVENTS
AT CITY HALL

Six residents of Morris street in the South Hills sector of New Castle attended City Council meeting Monday morning to protest the low pressure in the water mains in their neighborhood.

The group, led by Stanley Walczak of 1812 Morris street, claimed that not only was their pressure low at busy times such as wash day but that the situation was a real danger if a fire should occur in that neighborhood.

Safety Director Dick Davis explained to the group that the city merely offered fire protection service with the trucks and the case was one to be discussed between the water company and the protesting citizens. The councilman stated that water pressure is not the city's responsibility. However, the city was offering it "good offices" to help settle the matter.

Matthews Offers Aid
J. LePere Matthews, manager of the City of New Castle Water company was at the council session and agreed to accompany the fire chief, safety director and interested residents to the scene of the difficulty and make some pressure tests with some gauges that the water company expects in a few days from New York.

Matthews said that he had several changes in mind to increase the flow of water in the sector. He and the other interested persons will report the results of their findings and the changes will be made at a council meeting in the near future.

The protesting residents based their fire protection claim on the fact that there is no water available in the Morris street fire hydrant. If water is being drawn from the hydrant at the corner of Terrace and Hanna streets.

Edward Smosarski, 1707 Morris street, expressed the hope that something could be done for the water pressure in the residences of that sector as well as the fire protection factor.

COUNCIL BRIEFS

The six men attending Monday's council session to protest the water situation also asked that council investigate the possibility of putting a city playground in the South Hills sector near 17th New Castle Boro. Council agreed to discuss the problem in a committee of the whole session.

Also referred to the committee of the whole was an opinion sent to council by City Solicitor Robert M. White concerning the city right-of-way between Hamilton street and Cascade Park. White said that the property is privately owned by the city, whose only liability is to keep it from becoming a nuisance. If the old street car right-of-way were to become a thoroughfare, Shenango township would have to maintain it.

Lawrence County Commissioners sent correspondence to council requesting the city's position on the county's purchasing of the Court House for the construction of a detention home. The property, with an abandoned dwelling, is now held in trusteeship by the county for the county, city and school district which have tax liens against it. The councilmen agreed that it would be a good thing for the city as well as the county to have the detention home and that the city would cooperate with the county in the matter of back taxes and purchase of the land.

Upon the recommendation of Street Commissioner James Gibson council voted to advertise for the construction of two storm sewers. One is for Madison avenue between Liberty and Cedar street in the Seventh ward. There is no sewer there now. The other is for a sewer between Williams street and Hazen street. The water at present is draining over private property in that sector.

U.S. Will Not
Enter Pacific
Defense Pact

WASHINGTON, July 11.—(INS)—The United States indicated today that it will continue to sit on the sidelines as far as a Pacific defense pact is concerned because such an alliance still is regarded as premature.

State Department spokesman Michael McDermott emphasized that the architects of American foreign policy do not believe that the time is ripe for discussion of a Pacific alliance similar to the mutual defense machinery created by the Atlantic Pact.

McDermott pointed out that Secretary of State Acheson has stated that no Pacific pact can be developed until Asiatic nations had settled their internal difficulties.

The spokesman's comments were inspired by the meeting in Baguio, Philippines, of China's Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek and Philippine President Quirino.

A tournament usually was held in the Middle Ages on the invitation of a prince, who sent a herald through his own dominions and to foreign courts.

Search For Missing

BERLIN, July 12.—(INS)—U. S. airlift planes today searched the Soviet zone beneath the air corridors for a Berlin-bound C-54 transport plane which crashed with three men aboard.

U. S. search parties had no initial success in locating the wreckage which was believed deep in a Soviet zone forest.

Eyewitnesses said that the plane, which carried a ten-ton coal cargo, exploded as it attempted to make an emergency landing.

Congress Reaction To President's Program

WASHINGTON, July 12.—(INS)—President Truman's decision to scrap his demand for a four billion dollar tax increase brought favorable congressional reaction but opinion was divided on other key points of the chief executive's mid-year economic report.

Speaker Rayburn (D) Tex., declared after a legislative conference with Mr. Truman that Congress can enact a number of items in the president's 11-point anti-recession program without staying in session longer than planned.

Rayburn predicted favorable action on transportation tax repeal, social security extension, increase in the minimum wage, and the farm program.

As to the recommended increase on gift and estate taxes, the speaker observed:

"Will Be Difficult"

"That will be difficult. Everyone is in favor of reducing taxes instead of increasing them."

Rayburn added that Congress will remain in session "quite some time" but declined to be specific about a quitting date.

Sen. Murray (D) Mont. and Rep. Patman (D) Tex., announced they will soon introduce a bill to carry out proposals in Mr. Truman's economic message to Congress.

The two said in a statement that they have been working on a draft of legislation, to be known as the "Economic Expansion Bill of 1949."

Other comment on the president's economic report included:

Truman Behind Schedule

Rep. Halleck (R) Indiana, majority leader in the 80th Congress: "Ever since the war, Mr. Truman has been behind schedule on the economic facts of life. In January, he shadow boxed with inflation when everyone could see that we were headed into a deflation. Now he has been forced to face some realities. While his conversion is rather belated, I'm glad that he has finally recognized that this is no time to increase taxes."

Rep. Wolcott (R) Mich., ranking minority member of the House Banking and Currency Committee: "In general, the message seems to be a realistic approach to the problems of today. I'm glad that the president has come around to our point of view on taxation and I hope he follows through on it."

Sen. McMahon (D) Conn.: "I am pleased that the president is not pushing the tax increase. It is elementary that taxes are deflationary. I agree with most of Mr. Truman's recommendations. I think additionally that we should try to promote political unification of Europe as well as to push the foreign development program."

Billboard Names Annual Winners

"South Pacific" And Mary Martin And Ezio Pinza Take Top Honors Of Year

NEW YORK, July 12.—(INS)—The musical "South Pacific" and the drama "Death of a Salesman" ran away today with the sixth annual Donaldson awards of Billboard Magazine for achievement in the theatre.

"South Pacific" eclipsed the rest of the musical plays by garnering top prizes in nine out of the sixteen categories. Some 3,000 representatives of all branches of the legitimate theatre cast ballots.

Mary Martin was judged best actress of song and dance and her co-star in the musical, Opera Singer Ezio Pinza, took best debut honors. Myron McCormick and Juanita Hall won awards for the best supporting performances.

Joshua Logan's direction of the smash hit was termed the season's best, and the book, on which he collaborated with Oscar Hammerstein II, made awards to both co-authors. Hammerstein's lyrics and Richard Rodgers' score gave the play additional awards.

The best drama of the year, "Death of a Salesman," copied its share of awards with Lee J. Cobb, Arthur Kennedy and Mildred Dunnock winning honors for the best performance and best supporting roles, respectively.

Elia Kazan's staging of the play was acclaimed the best direction and Jo Mielziner's set for the Arthur Miller tragedy was cited as the best background.

May Attempt To Get Another T-H Law Repealer In House

WASHINGTON, July 12.—(INS)—Chairman Lesinski (D) Mich., of the house labor committee, decided today to try to get another Taft-Hartley law repeal bill to the house floor for a vote.

Lesinski acted with the approval of House Speaker Rayburn (D) Tex., and House Democratic Leader McCormack of Mass., and with the endorsement of President Truman.

There was uncertainty, however, over whether Lesinski could get his committee to agree upon a bill satisfactory to a majority of the group and to the administration.

It was anticipated that he would call his committee together within the next week or 10 days in an effort to report out another measure.

The house killed an earlier bill after it became riddled with amendments which brought the administration measure in line with the Taft-Hartley law.

Why a Man Buys a Cadillac

If you were to ask the owner of a 1949 Cadillac why he bought his car, he would doubtless find it difficult to put into words the way he feels about "the Standard of the World".

He would probably tell you that he bought his car because it's a Cadillac.

Of course if you wanted to ask him specific questions, he could give you a great deal of specific information.

Did he buy his car for performance? Why, surely he did—for the 1949 Cadillac is powered by a great new V-8 engine, so smooth and effortless that only a demonstration can tell the whole story of its superiority.

Did he buy it for comfort? Yes—for a ride so quiet and restful and easy that every mile is a joy and a relaxation.

Did he buy it for safety? He certainly did! He has such confidence in the steady steering, the quick acceleration and the powerful hydraulic brakes that his peace of mind is worth the purchase price!

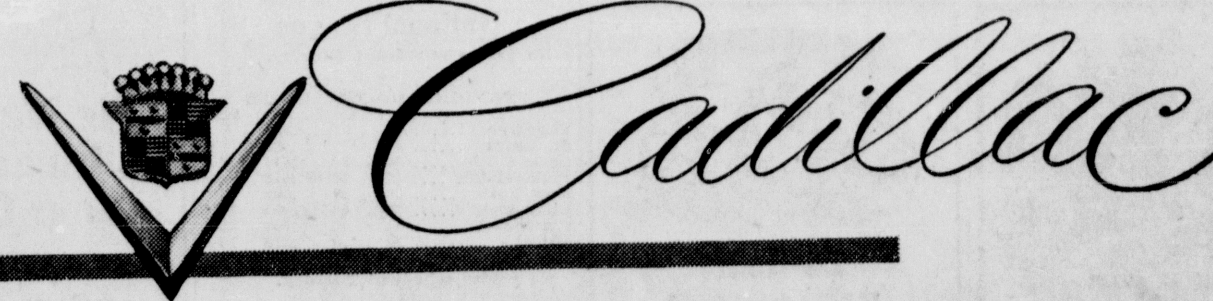

Did he buy it for long life and durability? There can be no doubt of it. For he knows that many individual Cadillacs have rolled down the highways for more than half a million miles and are still in active service!

Did he buy it for...? Why, of course he did! And he bought it for a lot of other reasons: for beauty, for distinction, for quality, for background, for character, for craftsmanship, for engineering.

He bought it because it's a... Cadillac.

And that is the reason you should buy one—for Cadillac's superiority lies not in any one thing but in the whole of its substance. Why not come in for a demonstration?

Wild Pitch, Homer By Betz, Wins Game

Showing utter disdain for an eight-run spurge by the New Castle Nats, in the second inning, the Youngstown Athletics, came ahead in the ninth inning, to down the locals 14 to 11 in a see-saw skirmish.

Upwards of 900 fans including quite a large turnout of women for the "Silk Stockings", sat in the stands and cheered, moaned, and groaned, as the teams displayed good, bad and indifferent baseball.

Pitchers On Parade

It was a "pitchers on parade" sort of game, seven chuckers taking part in a steady flow to and from the bullpens of both teams. Out of the maze of heavers Dick Blauman emerged the winner, and Herb Churchill the loser.

Bob Betz, the Youngstown third sacker hit a climatic homer in the ninth to settle the issue, with two mates aboard after Churchill had wild-pitched Billy Paoliso in from third base just previous. Youngstown wound up with four runs and stayed atop the heap in the Mid-Atlantic league race.

At Vandergrift Tonight

New Castle is at Vandergrift tonight for a double-header and a single game Wednesday, going to Butler for single games Thursday and Friday, returning home Saturday and Sunday to entertain Johnstown at Flaherty Memorial Field.

Frank Wagner the "old pro" was nominated by Manager Billy Mongiello to pitch the first game at Vandergrift tonight, and Burchioni goes in the second game.

Karakul Smashes Homer

Big Joe Karakul, the Cleveland boy, smashed his third homer since joining the Nats in the big second-inning rally, a terrific clout over the left-field wall, and in the same inning had a double also. Joe had three hits a homer and two doubles for five trips. Karakul drove in three runs.

Herman Kiel had two hits, a double and single and drove in two runs. Gene Bilo had two hits in four trips, both singles.

Ty Corbett the veteran started for New Castle and was derided in the fourth after allowing six hits and five runs. Bob Cook his successor was found for five runs, and seven hits in three and one-third innings. Churchill gave up two hits and four runs in two and one-third innings.

Spider Wilhelm, Bill Paoliso, Bob Betz, Uell Clark and Shine

the pond," with two out—Wilhelm having skied to Maier.

New Castle tried hard in the ninth but couldn't get a score, even with three walks, and could not hit the ball out of the infield. New Castle left nine men stranded, and Youngstown left 11 sitting it out.

Richardson led the attack for Youngstown on the three Nats hurlers.

New Castle enjoyed a 10 to 1 lead at the end of the sixth inning and appeared headed for their third league win of the second-half, but by the time the eighth inning ended it was 11 to 10 New Castle, the lead fading fast.

Betz Cleans Sacks

What happened in the ninth for Youngstown is this—Lilly batted for Blauman, and was thrown out by Mongiello. Paoliso singled, went to second when Clark walked, took third as Morgan walked, and scored on a wild pitch by Churchill, then Betz cleaned the "ducks off

Eddie Waitkus Hears All-Star Game On Radio

Wounded Philly First Sacker Recovering, Bullet Removed From Spinal Region

CHICAGO, July 12.—(INS)—Eddie Waitkus, prevented by a bullet wound from playing the position he earned, will take in the all-star baseball game today in a Chicago hospital room.

The star Philadelphia Phillies' first baseman was leading in voting for that position on the National league team before a love-crazed girl shot him down last month.

A week ago, the rangy 28-year-old Melrose, Mass. youth expected to be sitting in the stands for the annual mid-summer classic.

He had been named an honorary member of the National league squad by baseball commissioner A. B. Chandler in an unprecedented move.

Bullet Removed

Physicians at Chicago's Billings Memorial hospital had told him he had recovered sufficiently from the bullet wound to make the trip east.

So handsome Eddie was ready to see his friends and rivals play. But suddenly the player developed a temperature. Physicians examined him and decided it was caused by the bullet which still was lodged near his spine.

They removed the bullet last Saturday and Eddie was forced to abandon his plans to attend the game.

Mcllwraith, McKee Take Country Club Best Ball Title

J. W. Mcllwraith and S. E. McKee won the Country Club best ball finals Saturday afternoon by defeating Fred Broad and W. E. Watkins, 2 and 1 in match play.

Both teams had played some really fine golf in a series of elimination matches and a great deal of interest was shown in the finals.

The Best-Ball championship is one of the regular events on the Country Club's busy schedule for golfers throughout the summer.

In other weekend activity, par continued to take a beating, with both low and high handicap golfers showing fine form.

Saturday Winners

Saturday sweepstakes winners were J. W. Mcllwraith 75-8-67, W. R. Allen 81-13-68, and W. L. Miller 82-13-69, in Class A. Class B scorers Saturday were George Wilson 88-20-68, J. B. Foster, Jr. 84-16-68, E. R. Wallace 92-22-70, and D. H. Long 92-22-70.

Sunday in Class A, W. R. Allen topped the list with a 80-11-69. E. L. Steitzinger Jr., had a 78-6-72, and Sid Lucas came through with a 76-4-72. In Class B it was John McKinley with an 85-18-67 and W. W. Wallace with an 96-24-72.

Orlando Strikes Out Fifteen In First Round Elimination Series At Losers' Field

New Castle Junior Legion baseball team defeated Ellwood 7-1 in the first round of the county elimination series last night at Ellwood.

The win got the local nine back on the victory trail after losing out in the semi-finals at East Palestine.

The same teams meet again tonight at George Washington field and if the Gaston Post team is victorious, they will be in the third round or finals for the county legion title. The winners of the county crown will represent this district in the state tourney.

Orlando Tough

Orlando, the winning hurler, meant the difference between the two teams last night. The New Castle ace struck out fifteen men in seven innings and allowed only three hits. His was one of the finest baseball performances by a local sandlot pitcher this season.

In the hitting department Farone and Reed got five of the team's nine safeties.

A large crowd is expected to see the second game of the three game series tonight at Washington.

By TOM R. BRISLIN
(International News Service Sports Writer)

PHILADELPHIA, July 12.—Skinny Sugar Ray Robinson wore his world's welterweight crown jauntily today after a brilliant triumph over Kid Gavilan of Cuba in their 15 round title match at Municipal stadium last night.

The tall Harlem dandy has the laugh this morning on the experts who had him washed up as a welter.

Meets Fusari Next

And to rub it in Robinson possibly will defend his 147-pound crown again on Aug. 24 in a bout with Charlie Fusari at Yankee stadium in New York.

If the Fusari-Robinson championship affair doesn't materialize, Ray plans to take on furious Steve Belloise in a non-title go the same date.

But in whipping the sleek, nimble Gavilan last night, Robinson firmly established himself as—pound for pound—perhaps the No. 1 boxer of his generation.

Crowd of 28,000

Always one of the finest practitioners of the sock'em and rock'em fraternity, Robby was a master of the jab, hook and right cross as he slammed the crafty Cuban hawk from pillar-to-post.

Some 28,000 shrieking fans paid more than $175,000 gross to watch Robinson perform magnificently over the crimson-smudged 15-round pull.

The aggressive Cuban proved a stern test for the champion who was forced to dry out for 36 hours in order to make the required 147 pounds smack on the nose.

Gavilan Bores In

The rhumba-dancing Cuban never slowed his pace, even when Robinson popped explosive bombs of left hands in his face. Always Gavilan bore in, firing leather with triphammer rapidity, but Robinson, the master mechanic, brushed a majority of the hawk's blows off harmlessly.

And the champion put the clammer on Gavilan's ace-in-the-hole—the famed bone-crunching bolo uppercut. Only once or twice in the entire go did the hawk break through with the bolo and then but lightly.

No Knockdown

Gavilan paid for his boring in tactics, for he absorbed punishment by the bushel as Robinson mangled him coming in.

There were no knockdowns and only once was either fighter on the verge of a kayo, although each was staggered on a number of occasions.

In the 14th, Gavilan had the champion in bad shape and hanging on the ropes just as the bell saved him.

The hawk offered no alibi for his defeat, but hoped he could meet Robinson again. Gavilan said he thought the fight was closer than the officials broke it down.

One judge gave Robinson 12 rounds and the referee and the other judge gave the champion nine rounds.

Major Leaguers Adopt New Rules

Any Player Signing Autographs During Game Will Be Fined, Three Other Changes

NEW YORK, July 12.—(INS)—It's going to cost major league ball players money to be obliging to fans while games are in progress in the future.

American and National league officials, meeting in New York yesterday prior to the all-star game, agreed to fine players who sign autographs during a game.

The action is part of the campaign to protect players from overly ardent fans. Unruly spectators already are liable to legal punishment if they dash onto the field.

The major league executives named Comiskey Park, home of the 1950 game site. No date has been set for next year's classic.

Ban Winter Playing
Major leaguers were banned from playing in Caribbean winter leagues in the future. For the past two seasons, players who had less than 45 days major league service were allowed to play in the off-season Pan-American loops.

In another meeting, the majors' executive council approved the following suggestion by the players committee:

1. A ten-foot sand or gravel path inside the walls in each park to warn outfielders when they get dangerously close to the barriers.
2. Adoption of a minimum lighting standard for all fields.

The council took no action on a request that bullpen mounds also be made to conform to specifications.

Crowd Of 33,000 Sees All-Stars

NEW YORK, July 12.—(INS)—The finest talent the American and National leagues can muster met in the 16th annual all-star game this afternoon in Brooklyn, traditional home of baseball's most rabid fans.

A capacity crowd of 33,000 jammed Ebbets Field for the national pastime's midsummer carnival. Brooklyn is the last major city to play host to the game.

Fair weather prevailed for the classic into which the American league carried an 11-to-4 edge in victories.

SHAMROCKS BOUNCE
DeCARBOS 8 TO 3
The East Side Shamrocks bounced the DeCarbo Bombers for an 8 to 3 defeat in a city softball league game last night at Rose Avenue. Dinks Lane pitched a brilliant four-hitter. Ralph Paolone had a homer for the losers, with Paul Hawkins and D. Doran hitting hard for the "Rocks." A feature of the game was a catch of a hard hit liner by shortstop Billy Fannin of the Shamrocks, with the bases loaded, turning it into a double play.

It may still be a tough race, but it also looks as though the Yankees will get tougher before they get softer.

THEY'LL LEAD YANKEE CONTINGENT IN ALL-STAR GAME

SELECTED by vote of fans and nomination by Manager Lou Boudreau, these five members of the New York Yankees will participate in the All-Star game in Brooklyn Tuesday, July 12. The Yanks are (from left) Vic Raschi, Tommy Henrich, Joe DiMaggio, Allie Reynolds, Yogi Berra. (International)

New Wilmington Nips Bessemer Legion 5-2

Extra-Base Blows Help New Wilmington To First Victory In Elimination Series

New Wilmington Legion defeated the Bessemer Post Nine 5 to 2 in a county tournament game last night at Bessemer.

The two teams will play again tonight at New Wilmington. The team that wins two games first will engage Wampum in the second round of the county elimination series with Wampum.

New Wilmington out-hit Bessemer 9 to 6 and made three of its blows good for extra bases. Blake, McGinnis and Winters had two hits each for New Wilmington and each stroked a double.

Zornick was the best in the Bessemer line up with three hits. Hutchison was the winning pitcher and L. Tanner the loser.

Score by innings: R. H. E.
N. Wilm'gton 0005 000—5 9 0
Bessemer 010 000 1—2 6 2

Batteries: New Wilmington—Hutchison and Campbell; Bessemer—Gabert, L. Tanner and Gagliana.

Deweys Re-Schedule Two League Games

Dewey A. C. baseball team of the City League has announced the re-scheduling of two league contests.

Manager Bob Brest said today that the Dewey's game with league leading Universal A. A. booked for tonight, will be played at Washington Field Friday evening. This will permit the legion league playoffs to go on at Washington tonight.

A previously postponed Dewey contest with Ryanstown has been scheduled for tomorrow night at Scotland Lane. Game time is six o'clock.

Negro players, keen to deliver on their chance in baseball, simply are hustling harder than the great majority of players.

GONE BUT NOT FORGOTTEN!

FIVE BOYS, young Americans, pay homage to another great American figure, Lou Gehrig, on the eighth anniversary of the great ball player's death. No crowd, no game in Yankee stadium this day, but a fine gesture by the small fry. (International)

NATIONAL GUARDS TRIM SHADYSIDE

A revitalized National Guard softball team took a thrilling 4 to 3 City League contest from the Shadyside Tigers at Cascade field Monday evening.

Butler, the winning pitcher, allowed the losers but four hits, while Clark and Courman led the attack for the victors with two hits apiece. Clark also sparked in the field with six assists and three putouts at the third base position.

EAGLES SIGN UP TWO MORE ROOKIES

PHILADELPHIA, July 12.—(INS)—Two former football stars from West Virginia Wesleyan were added to the Philadelphia Eagles' pro grid squad.

They are halfback William C. Pugh, who played last season with the Paterson Panthers, and Charles Donley, Wesleyan's center last fall.

MOOSE DEFEAT BLACKHAWKS 4-1

The league leading Moose Club softball team defeated the Blackhaws last night at Gaston Park 4 to 1, with Russ Headland the winning hurler and Piano the loser. Heavy hitting was done by Toseano with a homer and Nuzzo with two triples.

Don't think that it's just coincidence that the teams with Negro players, both in the majors and the minors, are winning teams these days. It's no coincidence.

Game Commission Revamp Ordered

HARRISBURG, July 12.—(INS)—Thomas D. Frye today disclosed a major reorganization of the Pennsylvania Game Commission was ordered secretly a month ago.

The executive director of the commission said the executive board approved reorganization as of May 31, but explained that "administrative details which had to be worked out delayed this announcement."

Frye said new wage schedules are being worked out.

Henceforth, the commission will be divided into two major sections, namely the Administration Bureau and the Wildlife Conservation Bureau, he said.

Three Bureaus
Prior to reorganization three bureaus existed: Administration, Field Management, and Public Relations.

Under the Administration Bureau will be accounting and service, conservation education, the Ross Leffler School of Conservation, and wildlife research divisions.

The Wildlife Conservation Bureau will supervise land utilization, wildlife protection, game propagation and wildlife.

Bounty payment will be handled by the bounty claims section under the wildlife protection division, he said.

Classifications, positions, appointments, salaries and so on will be announced, Frye said, when they are made.

P.U.C. Hearings On Bell Telephone Co. Rates Are Ended

HARRISBURG, July 12.—(INS)—Hearings ended today before the Public Utility commission on a proposed $25,000,000 annual rate increase by the Pennsylvania Bell Telephone company.

An additional 90 days suspension of the tariff was ordered by the PUC last night to the initial six months delay.

The half-year-old proceedings were concluded by hearing Examiner Jay H. Eisman upon completion of cross examination of C. Radford Berry, the PUC's chief valuation engineer.

The commission is expected to begin study of the rate case in executive session in approximately one month after receipt of briefs from counsel for the company and complainants.

The commission suspended the proposed tariff again when it became apparent the case would unavoidably be extended beyond the July 21 expiration date of the original six months suspension.

The final hearing was highlighted today by the futile efforts of a company witness, Theodore E. Seelye, Philadelphia consultant engineer, to insert into the record testimony to the effect that the utility's $494,436,683 reproduction cost estimate was a conservative figure.

Seelye's references were stricken from the record when counsel for the PUC and complainants objected.

New Comedy Star Has Drama Goal

NEW YORK — (INS) — Anne Renee Anderson, one of the stars of Broadway's hit musical, "Lend An Ear", is acclaimed by critics as one of the cleverest comedienne to be discovered in the last two decades.

Anne turns in a scintillating performance in her combination singer-dancer-comedienne role. But her burning ambition, she confides, is to be a dramatic actress.

Anne had a taste of drama before joining the cast of the musical. She was emoting at the Turnabout theatre in Hollywood when the producers of her current show spotted her and decided to give her a try-out in the comedienne role.

"Don't misunderstand," explains Anne. "I enjoy doing comedy, especially since trying to make people laugh is for the most part a man's game." She added: "I have always considered drama my goal, however." She is married to comic Jules Minshin. During the war she joined the USO and toured the European, African and West Indies areas as head of a comedy unit.

LIEUTENANT William C. Linderose (above) of Fort Huron, Mich., has been identified as the officer who shot to death a Russian soldier in a border gun battle between U. S. and Soviet patrols near Coburg, Germany. The U. S. Constabulary has declared it will file a protest charging the Russians with firing on an American patrol in the U. S. zone after illegally crossing over the border. (International Soundphoto)

EDEN-HILLERS TOP CASTLEWOOD

The Eden-Hillers defeated Castlewood last night in a North County League game 3 to 1 with Tricolo the winning pitcher and allowing but three hits. Comesso had a double for the winners. Wednesday night the Eden-Hillers will play the New Bedford team at Edenburg field in a league game at 6 o'clock.

CHARLEY AFFIF DEFEATS DePAUL

PITTSBURGH, July 12.—(INS)—Charley (Zivic) Affif is back on the comeback trail today.

The Pittsburgh puncher impressed a crowd of 3,568 at the Zivic Arena last night with a unanimous 10-round decision over Andy (Kid) DePaul.

'Color Confusion' Commoner To Men

NEW YORK.—(INS)—The eternal battle of the sexes is not helped by the fact that only one in 500 women has anything wrong with her color-sense compared with one out of every dozen men.

The late Professor Selig Hecht of Columbia University, in a paper prepared for the Better Vision Institute, said, however, that color-sense deficiency shouldn't be called "color blindness." He explained:

"There is really no blindness involved at all. It should better be called color confusion. A color blind person is not blind to green, or to red, or to yellow. He merely confuses them."

Student Here On Fellowship Heard By Rotary

Kenneth Phythian, Of Manchester, Eng., Gives Impressions Of America

NEW OFFICERS ARE INSTALLED

New Castle Rotary club members, particularly those who have been contributors to the Rotary International fellowship fund, known as the Paul Harris Memorial Fund, which provides a year of study for students from many different countries in some other country than their own, were impressed by the talk given at the noon luncheon meeting in the Castleton Monday noon by Kenneth Phythian of Manchester, England.

Young Mr. Phythian, who has been attending Harvard university during the past year on a Rotary scholarship provided by the Harris Memorial Fund, told about the good the scholarships have been doing for young students in enabling them to gain a first hand knowledge of the countries they visit through these scholarships.

Can Speak with Authority
Thus they can return to their homes and speak not only intelligently, but honestly, of what they have seen and heard. Mr. Phythian has found the United States a great country and has found it to be the leading exponent of the Democratic way of life.

He will return shortly to his home, his scholarship being near an end. During his stay he tried to visit as many sections of the country as possible in order to gain a true picture of America.

He has a keen sense of humor and kept Rotarians convulsed with his anecdotes.

The new officers of New Castle Rotary took over their positions at Monday's meeting, Blair D. Alverson being installed as president;

Alan K. Schmidt, as vice president; Frank L. Orth, as treasurer; Carl E. Paisley, as secretary; DeLace Cole, sergeant at arms, and John V. McClelland, John Panella, Edwin J. Williams and John O. Huston, directors.

Past Officers Honored

Immediate Past President John O. Huston turned the gavel over to the incoming President Alverson and also presented him with his pin.

In turn, Past District Governor J. Lee McFate presented past president pins to all who have served the club and who are now members. The list includes J. Lee McFate, 1918-1919; Howard B. Richards, 1923-24; DeLace Cole, 1924-25; L. B. Round, 1931-32; William J. Caldwell, 1932-33; Robert A. Eckles, 1934-35; Frank L. Burton, 1936-40; S. Houston Rhoads, 1940-41; Clare B. Book, 1941-42; Joseph R. McFate, 1943-44; Harry L. Elder, 1944-45; H. C. Hadsell, 1945-46; L. C. Dayton, 1947-48; and John O. Huston, 1948-49.

Mr. McFate was presented with the past district governor's pin for the term he served in this high office by retiring President Huston.

Pins were also presented and recognition was given to Carl F. Paisley, who has served as secretary of the New Castle Rotary club since 1918, and to Frank L. Orth, who has been treasurer of the club for a great many years.

St. Vitus Holy Name Has Speaker

Joseph R. Hensley Speaks On Christopher Movement At Communion Breakfast

St. Vitus Holy Name Society gathered for Holy Communion Sunday morning at the 7:30 o'clock mass in St. Vitus church, followed by a Communion breakfast in the auditorium. Those who served the delicious breakfast were members of the Sodality.

Approximately 250 Holy Name men were in attendance, and Rev. Fr. Nicholas DeMita was the celebrant.

At breakfast, the event was opened with remarks by president Domenico Cluff. He spoke on retreats and urged members to participate in one next month.

Hensley Speaker
Program chairman, Francis Augustine introduced Joseph R. Hensley, the speaker of the morning, who spoke on the Christopher movement. The Christopher movement was started by Rev. Fr. James A. Keller, author of "You Can Change the World," and urges individuals to assist in good Catholic action, to do good every day and in this manner we can change the world.

"Go ye therefore and speak to all nations of the Lord" . . . this does not only pertain to the clergy, said Mr. Hensley, "but it has only been that way it seems. We as Catholic laymen are expected to go forth and speak of the Lord. The man who does not participate in any Catholic action is doing wrong." Mr. Hensley cited examples, and then suggested the reading of the book "You Can Change the World." Every little man can change the world was the theme of his address.

Francis Augustine spoke on Catholic Day, which is to be on August 3, at Cascade park. Other speakers included: Dr. John P. Prioletti, Attorney Joseph Leta, Anthony Conti, Alfonso Scerifazzo and David Valensi.

The Holy Bible was awarded to Samuel Chilli during the meeting.

New City Building Ready By Autumn

Landscaping And Other Matters In Building Competition Discussed By Council

New Castle's new City building may be ready for occupancy in late September or early October, according to information made available to city councilmen by the contractors at council meeting on Monday.

A test run will be made on the stoker and steam pipes Wednesday. A change in the specifications was also authorized by council to permit the addition of at least four washbowls throughout the building.

Raising the curbs and the landscaping of the building was also discussed by the solons. Councilman Joe Alexander moved that bids for the removal of a tree and laying of sidewalks be advertised. The motion was passed unanimously.

REGAINS SIGHT AFTER 18 YEARS

Republic Steel Rejects Demand For Wage Boost

CLEVELAND, July 12.—(INS)—Republic Steel corporation on Monday rejected demands of the CIO-United Steelworkers of America for increased wages and a group pension plan.

The corporation stated at a bargaining meeting today in Cleveland that economic conditions do not warrant a fourth round of wage increases and that under terms of the company's contract with the union "pensions are not a proper subject for negotiations at this time."

The firm continued, however, that it will negotiate questions of group insurance "unless and until our supplemental agreement of July 22, 1948, is terminated" with the provision that any group insurance plan be financed jointly by the company and the employees.

Republic's position was stated in a letter given to W. F. Donovan, chairman of the union negotiating committee by E. J. Magee, chairman of Republic's negotiating committee.

William Coddington (1601-78) was one of the founders and first governor of Rhode Island. He was born in England, and came to the Plymouth colony in 1630. In 1638 he moved to what is now Rhode Island because of his opposition to the witch trials.
